"It is health care — an opportunity to highlight the problem, but more so, to stimulate action. It is an opportunity to call on partners — governments, international donors, and society the private sector, the media, families and individuals alike — to develop sustainable activities for the current, health and well-being of mothers and children."
— Todd Rosen

"Creating a world that is safe for children does not mean denying the absence of war. It means having the confidence that our children will not die of violence or misery. It means having access to clean water and proper sanitation. It means building a world fit for children, where every child can grow to adulthood in health, peace and dignity."
— Carol Bellamy
