"...regardless of how complicated the problems might appear... it is possible to work through them and find solutions that are mutually satisfactory to every stakeholder in the problem... Most of the problems in this world are solved by us and therefore we have the capacity and the obligation to overcome them."
— Joan Baez

"The power of nonviolence is not circumstance specific. It is an application to the problems that confront us now... as long as the conditions that contributed to the violence in the past, it is not a substitute or a solution so much as a healing process. It is the active spiritual impulse of humanity."
— Barbara Williams
